CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT LEVI "DOC" SCOTT

Chief Master Sergeant Levi "Doc" Scott is the Air Force Security Forces Career Field Manager, and is the senior enlisted advisor to the Director of Security Forces, Headquarters U.S. Air Force. Chief Scott provides guidance on matters concerning the effective utilization, welfare and progress of 32,000 active-duty and reserve component security forces enlisted members, as well as providing information for security planning and programming. Chief Scott is key to inputs on the protection of Air Force installations from terrorism, sabotage and acts of war, and ensures the training, equipage and readiness of security forces in order to deny an enemy the traditional sanctuaries of night, weather, terrain...and even time, so we maintain full spectrum dominance.

Chief Scott entered the Air Force in 1978. He is a native of Enfield, North Carolina. His background includes various duties in security police/security forces at the operational, tactical and strategic levels. Prior to becoming the Air Force Security Forces Career Manager, Chief Scott was the Security Forces Manager for the 43D Security Forces Squadron at Pope Air Force Base, North Carolina.
